

features exhibitions. Earlier in the year, the gorgeous Scottish and Irish kilts from the costume department of the hit time-travel show "Outlander" were on display in an exhibit titled "The Artistry of Outlander." CBS Daytime celebrated 30 years with original set pieces and behind-the-scenesabilia from programming such as "The Price Is Right", "Guided by Stars", "The Price Is Right", and "Make A Deal." And Comedy Central's "South Park" highlighted memorable moments of over 20 years from their popular animated series in an exhibit called "South Park Experience."

If you've ever wanted to see your favorite television stars in person, only one place does that: The Paley Center for Media. Not only does the Paley Center showcase how television and film have shaped our lives, society and culture, but they host a variety of national events, including the highly popular PaleyLive and PaleyFest. Sit down for an evening of conversations with the cast and crew of shows currently on air. If you're a fan, don't worry! The Paley Center has partnered with Hulu to stream catch whole programs and episodes online. Recently, PaleyLive introduced an evening with the cast and crew of "Orange Is the New Black" and "Ray Donovan."

The Paley Center also holds its annual Paley TV Fall Previews with NBC, the CW, El Rey, CBS and PBS. This September, fans were able to get an up-close-and-personal look at shows and stars from "Lethal Weapon", "This Is Us", "Notorious", "Pitch" and "No Tomorrow."

Past PaleyFest events showcased: "Scream Queens," "Empire," "The Walking Dead," "The Big Bang Theory," "Better Call Saul," "Scandal" and "A Special Salute to Dick Wolf" with the stars from "Law and Order," "Chicago Fire," "Chicago PD," and "Chicago Med."

Tickets to these events are reasonably priced and available online through their website. If you're interested in becoming a member, they provide various membership levels for individuals, patrons, industry professionals and corporations, starting at $75/year. Aside from free admission, the perks of membership are discounted tickets, advance ticketing, screenings, and more. There's also discounts for seniors, students, and teachers. If you're a student or researcher who works at an educational organization, the Center also has a Scholar's Room available for a certain fee.

With all there is to explore, The Paley Center's motto -- "Leading Today's Media Conversation -- is on point. TV fans enjoy!

The Paley Center is open Wednesday through Sunday from 12 p.m. to 5 p.m. Call 310-786-1000 or visit www.paleycenter.org for more information. †
